NEW CHINO HILLS MALL OPENS THIS MONTH

It's the perfect time of year. Summer shopping has begun! The Shoppes at Chino Hills scheduled its May grand opening just in time for eager shoppers who can't wait to fill their closets with must haves.

Described as a "picturesque open-air shopping and dining destination with upscale fashion and noteworthy restaurants and specialty eateries" by Glenn Miller, SCMD, property manager of The Shoppes at Chino Hills, the center is a one-stop destination for every shopping need.

Among the more than 70 shopping, dining and entertainment offerings is the first H&M in the area, Banana Republic, Chico's, Victoria's Secret, Coldwater Creek, J. Jill, New York & Company, White House Black Market, Barnes & Noble Booksellers, Wood Ranch, P.F. Chang's China Bistro, JADE Aveda Salon-Spa, pinkberry, Brighton Collectibles, the first Peet's Coffee & Tea in the I.E., and a Trader Joe's.

"I think any day at The Shoppes at Chino Hills will be far from typical," says Miller. "With the array of shops and restaurants, the experience will be different for each guest each time he or she visits."

The Shoppes at Chino Hills is located west of the Chino Valley (71) freeway on the border of San Bernardino, Orange and Los Angeles counties. It was developed by Opus West.
